

Become a Friend or Community Partner of RMTA!

RMTA invites you to join our merry band of music lovers and become a "FRIEND OF RMTA" or a "COMMUNITY PARTNER". Founded in 1926 by a small group of independent music teachers, RMTA provides a variety of educational and performance opportunities for its members, their students and the community.

The benefits are....

FRIENDS - $40 annually

Friends are active teachers, retired teachers, teachers-in-training, professional musicians, amateur musicians, music lovers of all kind who reside in Berkr County – or the surrounding counties! - who want to support the music education community.

- Receive all RMTA correspondence
- May attend or participate in locally sponsored events at no cost
- If you are an active teacher, your students may participate in locally sponsored events – recitals, contests, festivals, projects. (Student fees may apply.)
- Also, if you are an active teacher, you may be included on the RMTA website teacher referral listing found under the menu item "Find a Teacher". Take a look at the page to see what information to include.)
- Renewable annually -
 - If joining July 1 through December 31 - $40
 - If joining Jan 1 through June 30 -$25

COMMUNITY PARTNERS - $100 annually

Community Partners are businesses, music ensembles and any organization dedicated to cultivating music excellence in our community.

- Their logo and/or business card will appear on the RMTA website for one year
- They will be acknowledged at events and in recital programs.
- Renewable July 1 of each year
